Happenstance brought Jeff Blakely to Tell el-Hesi in the summer of 1971, and he is now in his 55th year with the project, having served as director for the past 30 years. His specialty is Tell el-Hesi and its environs through time, and he notes that each year brings a deeper understanding of the site. To gain broader perspective, he has also worked in Yemen, North America, Jordan, and at Caesarea Maritima.
