

Visual Culture in the Early Bronze Age Levant

15 October 2026

W.F. Albright Institute of Archaeological Research
Salah Ad-Din St. 26, Jerusalem

8:45 – 9:00 Welcome and refreshments

9:00 – 9:10 Preliminary Remarks

Opening comments by the organizers

9:10 – 11:00 Synoptic Studies

The Iconography of the Early Bronze Age Southern Levant: Economics and the State | Ianir Milevski

The Non-Iconic Visual Culture of the Early Bronze Age | Yuval Yekutieli

Fertility and Frazer: Iconography, Inherited Interpretations, and Early Bronze Age Religion | Julian Hirsch

11:00 – 11:15 Coffee Break

11:15 – 12:30 Synthetic Approaches to Rock Art

Bulls in the Earliest Layers of Negev Rock Art: Between Pastoral Practice and Mythic Symbolism | Lior Schwimer and Liora Kolska-Horwitz

The 'Arad Stele' and its Connotations | Uzi Avner

12:30 – 13:15 Lunch Break

13:15 – 14:30 New Approaches to Figurines

From Divine to Equine: The Evolution of the Early Bronze Age Figurines | Shira Albaz and Nicole Callaway

Early Bronze Age Zoomorphic Figurines: Aspects of an Enhanced Analytical Methodology | Nadeshda Knudsen

14:30 – 15:00 Visual Aspects of EBA Ceramics

Development and Change within Southern Levantine Metallic Ware in Northern Israel | Tamar Leitner

15:00 – 15:15 Coffee Break

15:15 – 16:30 Signs and Symbols in the Early Bronze Age

Some Notes on Pre-fired Incised Potmarks and their Possible Meanings | Yitzhak Paz

Incised Symbols as Diffused Religious Expressions in the EBA Levant | Samuel Atkins

16:30– 17:00 Final Discussion and Concluding Remarks